ABOUT ME

A dependable and hardworking Back-end Developer with a Bachelor's Degree in the course of Information Technology. A good knowledge in software and web development. Flexible and can easily adjust on any given task or job.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Web Developer, Dynamic Markups, Rosario, Cavite

Aug 2019 - Present

I currently work as a Backend Web Developer at this company. Most of the task revolves around economical transactions, meaning it is about money. My job is very crucial, because I there must be no line of error since it is about money. I also sometimes do Frontend little by little because I want to be a Full-stack Developer soon. Most of my projects were made using Native PHP and sometimes Laravel, though I am still beginner.
